

Established in 2003 (Formally Isle of Wight Advocacy Trust), we work throughout the South of England. We have built an excellent reputation as an effective advocacy service for vulnerable and disempowered people.

Testimonials

“Thank you – from the bottom of my heart! My advocate makes me feel that anything is possible”

By Ms CK – Sandown

“We had no idea that we had so many options.”

By family and client

“Advocacy really DID change my life!”

By Mr SA - Ryde

We believe that people with any form of disability or mental health need are equal members of society and that everyone has the right to plan their own life, to be listened to, taken seriously and to be respected.

Designed by www.matrixcreate.com

Where to find us

Quay House, The Quay, Newport, Isle of Wight, PO30 2QR

 01983 559299

 08443 588877

info@southernadvocacyservices.co.uk southernadvocacyservices.co.uk

Registered Charity Number. 1106254

Southern Advocacy Services

it changed my life

We can support adults with a diverse range of difficulties

-  Learning Disabilities
-  Mental Health
-  Older Persons
-  Sensory Impairment
-  Other Vulnerable People

What We Offer

Southern Advocacy Services

An independent advocacy service which provides support and takes action to help people say what they want, secure their rights, represent their interests and obtain services that they require.

it changed my life

info@southernadvocacy.com

Family Advocacy

Providing support and information to vulnerable parents.

Independent Mental Health Advocacy (IMHA)

Is a specialist mental health advocate.

Issue Based Advocacy

Provides 1 to 1 support to enable people to have a voice.

Independent Mental Capacity Advocacy (IMCA)

People who are assessed as lacking the mental capacity have access to an independent advocate when they are having decisions made about them.

Dementia Advocacy

Specialist dementia advocates support carers/families and clients.

Appropriate Adult Services

Safeguards the rights of vulnerable people whilst in police custody.

Training

We offer a wide range of training options see our website for full details:
southernadvocacy.com/advocacy-training.html

Mediation

Advocate's who hold The Interpersonal Mediation Practitioner's Certificate help resolve disputes and manage conflict.

www.southernadvocacy.com

